The TRUE
English School,
FOR THEIR
MAJESTIES three Kingdoms.

BEING

A Catalogue of all the Words in the Bible, together with a Praxis in Prose and Verse; and variety of Pictures: all beginning with one Syllable, and proceeding by degrees to Eight, divided and not divided; whereby all Persons both young and old, of the meanest abilities, may with little help, be able to read the whole Bible over distinctly, easily, and more speedily than in any other Method.

Published by TOBIAS ELLIS, Minister of the Gospel.

Prov. 29. 14. The KING that faithfully judgeth the Poor, his Throne shall be Established for ever.

Prov. 29. 7. The Righteous considereth the cause of the Poor, but the Wicked regardeth not to know it.

Gal. 6. 10. As we have therefore opportunity let us do good unto ALL MEN.

LONDON,

Printed for the Author, and are to be sold by W. Freeman, at the Bible over against the Middle-Temple Gate in Fleetstreet. 1691.

TO THE

CHRISTIAN and CHARITABLE

READER.

CONsidering with my self wherein I might most and best serve and honour God, my Soveraign Lord the King, and promote the welfare of His Kingdoms and Dominions which is and ought to be every good Subjects duty and interest sincerely so to do with all possible peaceableness and faithfullness, especially seeing by a Series of divine and wonderful providences we have hitherto enjoyed so great quietness under His Majesties Government which hath been exercised (I speak it without Flattery to the praise of God) in much meekness and prudence, mercy and clemency; I cannot better testify my duty to God, or Loyalty to the King than in perswading all of all perswasions in his Three Kingdoms who fear God to be of one mind and way in provoking each other to love and good works, the lively, constant and unwearied practise whereof would certainly and suddenly through the grace of God put a Period to all our unchristian and uncharitable differences: And what greater, better and more necessary work of Charity, and Labour of Love can we shew unto the name of God on the Poors behalf than the bringing of the holy Bible which is the Word of God into that request as to be daily and diligently read in all Families; a duty too much neglected and slighted by those who have ability and leisure thereunto: It's lamentable to think of, and ought to be a great grief of heart to every good Christian that at this time when Bibles are so plentiful, cheap, and common among us with means to facilitate the reading thereof, there should be found in these Kingdoms so many thousand Families in which not so much as one in a Family young or old can read a Chapter for its Edification; the great Objection is, that of those who can read, how many are there who either read not at all, or make ill use of it? This is so far from being an excuse why ignorant persons should not learn to read, that

that they are the more obliged to this duty by how much others disuse and abuse it: And who knows but that the zeal of the unlearned in a chearful willingness and readiness to learn, and do their duty herein may provoke those who can read, but do not to a truly conscientious performance in searching the holy Scriptures and meditating therein day and night each one by him self between God and his own Soul, as also in reading some portion thereof daily to his Family with fervent Prayer for a blessing thereupon, which Practise of Piety duly and truly executed every where would through Gods gracious Benediction, make these Three Kingdoms holy and happy. And can we better bestow our labour and riches, time and talents then in a studious promoting of the knowledge both of the form and power of godliness amongst the grosly ignorant, which I confess is as great a difficulty, as it is a duty of no less then infinite moment, to do it as it ought to be done even with the greatest sincerity, industry and serious Compassion that becomes a Work of that importance and true necessity. Oh that all the godly learned would but well weigh and ponder that one Scripture. Isaiah 27. 11. It is a people of no understanding, therefore he that made them will not have mercy on them, and he that formed them will shew them no favour. Since there is no mercy, no favour for any ignorant person while ignorant and of no understanding, how greatly doth it behoove us to pity the multitude who are such, and to our utmost to endeavour to bring them to the knowledge and use of all good means which by Gods grace may prove effectual to acquaint them with their whole duty to God, themselves and others that they perish not in Hell for want of knowledge. But it is further objected that it is impossible that the very aged people should learn, and that that time would be better spent in reading the oftner to them, and many have gone to Heaven that could never read. All things doubtless are possible to God and to them that believe, and are so wise as to be willing and diligent, Labour will overcome all things: Let but the teacher and learner both give diligence which cannot want Gods blessing, and then it is impossible but the meanest capacities will attain in a reasonable time to a competent readiness in reading, which if they have grace to make good use of will be a greater blessing to them than the riches of the whole world. For what will it profit a man to gain the whole world and loose his own Soul? And as for reading to the ignorant aged whose memories are generally weak that may also be done, but will never profit them as reading of themselves will do: For in reading, they can read a little and meditate much by which they will profit much: not so in hearing a chapter read; which sometimes as it comes in at one Ear goes out at the other: Besides if it be consider'd it will require a thousand times more pains and patience and much longer time to read the Ignorant into a competent Knowledge, then to teach them to read; which, I do verily believe, God now requires of them: For never was there such help as now abounds to bring persons with ease, pleasure and speed to read the sacred Scriptures. And I am indifferent by what book or way, means or method it be done, so it be effectually well done. That some who could never read

read are gone to Heaven, I grant; but that there are more gone to Hell who neither could nor would learn to read none will deny. And that reading the Bible is a Gospel duty, and a spicial means of gaining saving knowledge is acknowledged by all and the more frequent and conscientious Christians are in that duty both in publick and private the wiser and the holier for certain will they be, and so the better prepared for Heaven: So that I wish even from the bottom of my heart that all who have the benefit of reading would so prize, practise, and profit by searching the Scriptures that they may willingly help the helpless ignorant poor, to that so invaluable a blessing. But the true and lively consideration how dreadful a thing it will be for an immortal rational creature to be out of Heaven eternally under an infinite weight of judgment in Hell Fire everlastingly; and to consider also the glorious priviledges of the godly who are delivered from the Wrath to come, to be for ever with the Lord of Glory enjoying an Eternal weight of glory will I trust be such powerful motives as cannot but excite all sincere believers to give all diligence as much as in them lies to prevent the misery, and procure the salvation of poor but precious Souls. What a glory would it be to these Kingdoms, what an honour to God, and an ornament to the Gospel and our Religion if all the godly would unite as one man to promote the One thing necessary, The Glory of God, and the Salvation of all Men. Those two Scriptures 1 Cor. 10. 31. Whether we eat or drink, or whatsoever we do to do all to the glory of God. 1 Tim. 2, 3. 4. Our Saviour will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth: are well worth our best thoughts. Let it be all our desire and labour, next to the making our own calling and Election sure, to bring all men to the knowledge of the truth, because Christ is willing that All shall be saved. Acts 20. 31. And now brethren, commending you to God, and to the Word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an Inheritance among all them which are sanctified; I commend the Word of Christ to your reading, meditation and practice constantly till it dwell in you richly in all Wisdom, which is the true desire of

From my House at Great-Milton in Oxford-shire, March 16. 1684.

Your

Faithful Servant,

Tobias Ellis.

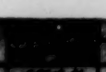

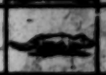

Advertiſement to the Reader.

LET the Learner be Taught firſt to ſpell one Syllable and then read the Praxis to that, which he will find at the latter end of the Book, and ſo proceed to all the reſt.

The Graver having miſplaced the Three and Four Syllables in the Pictures, the Teachers are deſired not to read them as they now ſtand, but in their proper places, firſt all the Three Syllables, and then all the Four.

The Christian Covenant.

ACcording to the Covenant which I made in my Baptism, I do give up my self to God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, my only God, my Creator, my Redeemer, my Sanctifier, and my Preserver; and forsaking the Flesh, the World, and the Devil, I do resolve by the Grace of God to serve him sincerely in Holiness, Righteousness and Sobriety, to my Life's end.

The Lord's Prayer.

OUR Father, which art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdome come. Thy Will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our treſpaſſes, as we forgive them that treſpaſs againſt us. And lead us not into temptation: But deliver us from all evil: For thine is the Kingdome, the power and glory, for ever, and ever, Amen.

The Creed.

I Believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and Earth:

And in Jeſus Chriſt his onely Son our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Ghoſt, born of the Virgin Mary, Suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead, and buried, He deſcended into hell; The third day he roſe again from the dead, He aſcended into heaven, and ſitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; From thence he ſhall come to judge both the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghoſt; The holy Catholick Church; The Communion of Saints; The forgiveneſs of ſins; The Reſurrection of the body, And the life everlaſting. Amen.

The

The Ten Commandments.

GOD ſpake all theſe words ſaying, I am the Lord thy God, who brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the houſe of bondage.

I. Thou ſhalt have none other Gods but me.

II. Thou ſhalt not make to thy ſelf any graven image, nor the likeneſs of any thing that is in heaven above, or in the earth beneath or in the water under the earth. Thou ſhalt not bow down to them, nor worſhip them. For I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, and viſit the ſins of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me, and ſhew mercy unto thouſands in them that love me and keep my Commandments.

III. Thou ſhalt not take the Name of thy Lord thy God in vain: for the Lord will not hold him guiltleſs that taketh his Name in vain.

IV. Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath-day. Six days ſhalt thou labour and do all thou haſt to do; but the ſeventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God. In it thou ſhalt do no manner of work, thou nor thy ſon, nor thy daughter, thy man-ſervant, nor thy maid-ſervant, thy cattle, nor the ſtranger that is within thy gates. For in ſix days the Lord made heaven and earth, the ſea, and all that in them is, and reſted the ſeventh day; Wherefore the Lord bleſſed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it.

V. Honour thy Father and thy Mother, that thy days may belong in the Land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou ſhalt do no murder.

VII. Thou ſhalt not commit adultery.

VIII. Thou ſhalt not ſteal.

IX. Thou ſhalt not bear falſe witneſs againſt thy neighbour.

X. Thou ſhalt not covet thy neighbours houſe, thou ſhalt not covet thy neighbours wife, nor his ſervant, nor his maid, nor his ox, nor his aſs, nor any thing that is his.

A Praxis of One Syllable in Proſe and Verſe.

God bleſs, keep, love, guide and ſave the Church, our good King CHARLES, Queen, James Duke of York, the whole Realm: O grant us all in this our day Grace, and Peace with Truth, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

FEAR God, truſt in him with all your heart, mind, and might, that your days may be long in the Land which the Lord your God will give you; pleaſe him well in all things, know, love, ſerve and cleave to him, for this is your life; ſtand in awe, and ſin not; muſe in your own heart on your bed, and be ſtill.

Work while it is day, the hour will come when none can work. Take heed how you hear, pray, read, preach, live, dye. Search, try, prove your hearts, thoughts, words, works, ways, and ſo turn to the Lord, with all your hearts, that it may be well with you and your ſeed.

Ask, and ye ſhall have; ſeek, and ye ſhall find; knock, and your heart ſhall live that ſeek the Lord.

Come to me my Son, hear, and I will teach thee how, to know, love, fear, ſerve thy God. Think oft or much of God who made you, with fear; of his Son Chriſt that bought you with his dear Blood, with love; of God the Holy Ghoſt, with joy, that will ſave you from ſin and hell, if you give up your ſelf to him, to be your guide to God. Give thanks to the moſt high God. Pray for peace on Earth, and good will to all men.

For me to live is Chriſt, and to dye is gain. Chriſt is the Gift of God, and Faith is the Gift of Chriſt. Buy the Truth and ſell it not; for what good will it do a man to gain the whole world, and loſe his own Soul? God is man's chief good. Moſt men ſay, Who will ſhew us what is good? But Lord cauſe thy face to ſhine on us. Live well, and you will dye well. Fear God and keep his Law, for this is the whole of man. Love God, hate ſin, flee the luſts of the fleſh, the luſt of the eyes and the pride of life. Chriſt is the way, the truth and the life. None but Chriſt, none but Chriſt; what things were gain to me, thoſe I now count loſs, yea dung, that I may win Chriſt, and be found in him at the laſt day, when the Trump ſhall ſound, and call the dead out of their Graves, whom God will judge, ſome to ſhame, ſome to bliſs.

Lay up theſe Ten words in thy Breaſt.

I. There is but one God, and one Lord to know, love and ſerve.
II. I muſt ſerve him in truth with my whole heart.
III. I muſt fear to take his Name in vain, leſt I bring guilt upon my ſelf.
IV. I muſt keep the Lord's day with a pure heart. Six days I may work, but on the Lords day I may not think my own thoughts, or ſpeak my own words, or do my own work, which may be done on the week day; my man or maid that ſerves me, my ox, or my aſs ought not to work, but reſt on that day.
V. I muſt fear, love, and pleaſe God, and all thoſe that are to rule me by his word.
VI. I muſt not hurt or harm, much leſs kill my friends or foes.
VII. I muſt keep my ſelf pure, clean in thought, word and deeed, and hate the luſts of the fleſh.
VIII. I may not dare to ſteal, or do the leaſt wrong: Let him that ſtole ſteal no more.
IX. I muſt lie to, and ſpeak falſe of no man.
X. I muſt do as I would be done by.

Come near to me, my Son moſt dear,
And to my words give Ear,
I will thee teach to know the way
How thou the Lord maiſt fear.
Who is the Man that would live long
And lead a life moſt juſt? (thoughts
See thou keep free thy tongue and
From all ſtrife, guile and luſt
Sin not; but ſtand in awe of God,
Be good in word and deed;
Seek love and peace with good and bad,
Yea do it with all ſpeed.
By what means may a young child beſt
His life learn to keep pure?
If that he mind and keep Gods word,
And of his love make ſure.

Send out thy light, life, love and truth,
And lead me with thy grace;
Oh guide me to the hill, my God,
Where I may ſee thy face:
Then ſhall I to the houſe ſtraight go
Of God my joy and fear;
And with my heart give thanks to thee,
O God, my Lord moſt dear.
Why art thou then ſo ſad my Soul,
And fretſt thus in my breaſt?
Still truſt in God, for him to praiſe,
I hold it to be beſt.
By him I have good help at need,
In all my toil and pain;
He is my God who will ſoon turn
My grief to my great gain.

A Praxis of One Two Three and Four Sillables,

A brief Paraphraſe upon the CREED.

I Heartily believe and acknowledg one only God, diſtinguiſhed into Three perſons, namely the Father, the Son and the Holy-Ghoſt, infinite in being, Underſtanding, Goodneſs, Power, Holines, Juſtice, Truth and Faithfulneſs; the Creator ator, Redeemer, Sanctifier, Preserver, Disposer and Governor of all Persons and Things, and the most righteous and merciful Lord of all.

I believe also that all mankind by wilful Sin are falln short of the Glory of God, under his wrathful displeasure, the Curse of the Law, and the Power of Sin and Satan, and that God the Father so loved the World, that he gave his only begotten Son to be their Redeemer, who being from everlasting to everlasting very God, of the same substance with, and equal to his Father, did take to himself our Nature and became man; being conceived of the Holy Ghost in the Womb of the Virgin Mary, and borne of her and named JESUS CHRIST having lived blameless without Spot and Guile, who did not Sin upon Earth; he was so holy harmless, Undefiled, Separate from Sinners, and wrought many Miracles for the Confirming of his Truth: He resigned and gave himself a Sacrifice for our Sins, and a Ransome for us in fulfilling all Righteousness, and suffering Death on the Cross, and being buried he rose again the Third day according to the Scriptures; and afterwards ascended far above all Heavens, where he sitteth Lord of all, at his Fathers right hand in Glory, and having ordained that all who sincerely repent and believe in him and love him above all things, and yield Universal and Constant Obedience to his holy, just and good Commandments even to the Death shall be saved, and they that refuse shall be damned; and commanded his Ministers to Preach the Everlasting glorious Gospel to every Creature in the World, he will come again and raise the bodies of all men from Death, and will summon all the World before him. The Righteous he will sentence to Life Everlasting, and the Ungodly he will adjudg to Eternal Damnation.

Furthermore, I believe that God the Holy Ghost, the Spirit of the Father and the Son proceeding from both, is the Sanctifier, Counsellor, Comforter and preserver of man-kind; and that he was sent from the Father by the Son to inspire and direct the Prophets, Evangelists, and Apostles, that they might fully reveal, declare and publish the whole Doctrine of Christ, being the glad tidings of the Gospel. And by multitude of evident uncontrolled Miracles, and manifold wonderful gifts to be the great Witness of Christ, and of the truth of the Holy Scriptures; and also to work, witness and inhabit in all that are drawn and perswaded to believe, that being first united to Christ their Head and Husband, and joyned to the Church which is his Mystical Body, and so justified, pardon'd, and adopted into the number and priviledge of the children of God, they may be a peculiar and chosen people sanctified to Christ, and may mortify the deeds of the body, and overcome by believing, the world and the Devil; and being zealous of and ready to every good work, may serve God in holiness, righteousness and sobriety; and may live in the special love and fellowship of all Saints; and so in a joyful hope, of everlasting life, at the glorious appearing of the great God, the Saviour of the World, even Jesus Christ, who is God and man over all blessed for ever; To whom with the Father and Eternal Spirit be aſcribed world without end the Kingdom, the Power, and the Glory. Amen, Amen.

A Saving Reſolution.

I do by the grace of Almighty God, humbly, reverently, heartily, ſincerely and thankfully take this one God, for my only God and portion and my chiefeſt good, and this Lord Jeſus Chriſt for my only Redeemer, Advocate, Interceſſor, Lord and Saviour; and this Holy Ghoſt for my Sanctifier, my Counſellor, my Comforter, and my keeper; and the Doctrine revealed by him in the Holy Scriptures, and ſealed by his Miracles I do take for the law of God, and the rule of my Faith and life; and repenting unfeignedly of all my ſins I do entirely and eternally forſake them all, with full purpoſe of heart, through Chriſt ſtrengthening me, ſincerely to obey him both in holineſs to God, righteouſneſs to men, ſobriety to my ſelf, and in faithful love to all the Saints, and communion with them againſt all the devices and temptations of the Devil, the allurements of the World, and motions of my own ſinful fleſh, to the very death.

Lord, I believe, help my unbelief. Faith is the ſubſtance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not ſeen. He that believeth ſhall be ſaved: but he that believeth not ſhall be damned. Sirs, what muſt I do to be ſaved? Believe in the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and thou ſhalt be ſaved and thy houſe. Without Faith it is impoſſible to pleaſe God; for he that cometh to God muſt believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently ſeek him. He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witneſs in himſelf: He that believeth not God, hath made him a Lyar, becauſe he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son. God ſo loved the World, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whoſoever believeth in him ſhould not periſh, but have everlaſting life. He that believeth on him is not condemned; but he that believeth not is condemned already, becauſe he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. He that believeth on the Son hath everlaſting life, and he that beleiveth not the Son, ſhall not ſee life, but the wrath of God abideth on him. As many as were ordained to eternal life believed.

Holy Father open thou mine eyes for Jeſus ſake, and turn me from darkneſs to light, and from the power of Satan to God, that I may receive forgiveneſs of ſins, and inheritance among them which are ſanctified by Faith that is in the Lord Jeſus Chriſt. Amen.

A broken heart and contrite ſpirit,
O God beſtow on me:
Which is a Sacrifice indeed
Well pleaſing unto thee.

JEHOVAH!

JEHOVAH! who inhabit ſhall
Thy glorious Heavenly place?
Or whom wilt thou vouchſafe to ſee,
In Heaven thy bleſſed face?
The man whoſe heart and life is ſound,
And walketh in the way
That holy is, and from Gods law
Who goeth not aſtray.
That to his neighbour doth no harm
In body, goods, or name;
But willingly relieves Gods poor,
Oppreſt with want and ſhame.
That putteth not to uſury,
His mony, goods or wealth:
Or for to hurt the innocent,
Dares waſt or wrong by ſtealth:
His oath and all his promiſes,
He keepeth faithfully.
Although he make his Covenant ſo,
That he gains loſs thereby.
That in his heart ungodly men
Regardeth not to know;
But all who love and fear the Lord,
Favour to them doth ſhow.
Whoſo doth all things here expreſt,
That God from him doth crave,
Aſſured is in th' other world
Eternal life to have.

Be evermore deſirous of Spiritual and Heavenly excellencies, but chiefly godlineſs with contentment, chaſtity, ſobriety, ſincerity, gentleneſs, temperance, patience, thanfulneſs, brotherly kindneſs and faithfulneſs, abounding herein with thanksgiving, following moreover with all diligence after the greateſt of graces, Charity, which is the bond of perfection. Nothing profiteth without Charity. Charity ſuffereth long; is kind, envieth not, vanteth not it ſelf, is not puffed up, doth not behave it ſelf unſeemly, ſeeketh not her own, is not eaſily provoked, thinketh no evil, rejoyceth not in iniquity, but rejoyceth in the truth, beareth all things, believeth all things, endureth all things, it never faileth: Now abideth Faith, Hope, Charity, theſe three, but the greateſt of theſe is Charity, which whoſoever is not negligent to endeavour to be eſtabliſhed in, an abundant entrance ſhall be miniſtred unto him, into the everlaſting Kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jeſus Chriſt, to whom with the Father and the eternal Spirit be aſcribed thanksgiving for evermore. Amen and Amen.

One pleaſant thing, thy Tabernacle,
Lord give me to inhabit;
Where I may ſeek and ſee thy face,
Till heaven I inherit.
How precious Almighty God,
Thine ordinances be,
Where joyfully thy Servants ſing
Hallelujahs to thee?
One thing I long deſired have
For this divided Nation
That God would graciouſly prevent
Its utter deſolation.
One thing I long deſired have
For this divided Nation
That unto it the Lord would be
A peaceful habitation.

One

One thing I long desired have,
The one thing necessary,
To mind, above the many things
By which the World miscarry.
The one thing necessary is
To glorify the Lord
In thought in word, in deed, in truth,
In love with one accord.
The next great good thing I would have,
O Father, Son, and Spirit,
Is union with one living God,
Through Jesus Christ his Merit.
That I may have communion
In body, Soul and Spirit,
With God on Earth in Heaven above.
His glory to inherit.
Where I shall see thee face to face
All Glorious Majesty,
Triumphing over enemies
With Saints eternally.

Thy loving kindnos I esteem
Above all worldly wealth,
For of my Soul and Body both,
It is the saving health.
The light of thy good countenance
Lift graciously on me,
Who am thy humble servant, Lord,
Delighting much in thee,
And in thy testimonies pure,
Purer than Gold most fine,
Sweeter than Hony and the Comb,
I count thy Word divine.
Rejoycing greatly with all Saints
To hold communion
In faith, in hope, in charity,
Though not of my perswasion.
To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost
Be given Dominion,
Throughout the world, by all the Saints,
With humble adoration. Amen.

Blessed Lord who hast caused all Holy Scriptures to be written for our learning, grant that we may in such wise hear them, read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them, that by patience, and comfort of thy Holy word we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which thou hast given us through our Saviour Jesus Christ, in whose name, merits, mediation and words we pray.

OUR Father which art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

A Praxis of Five and Six Syllabes.

The wicked with their wickedness,
In every Holy Nation,
To Godly Kings and Rulers just
Are an Abomination.

The

The Godly with their godlineſs
In every Chriſtian Nation
To Righteous Kings and Rulers are
The ſureſt preſervation.

LET all Wrath, Malice, Injuſtice, Adultery, Idolatry, Hypocriſie, Contention, Sedition, Laſciviouſneſs, Senſuality, Fornication, and all other abominations be put away, hated, abhorred, abandoned effectually and everlaſtingly by all Profeſſors of Chriſtianity, and let us with unanimity make ſupplications, prayers, interceſſions and giving of thanks continually for the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, with all in authority, that we may live quietly and peaceably under them in all godlineſs and honeſty, ſobriety and ſincerity, devoting our ſelves to hoſpitality, liberality, voluntarily and univerſally, without partiality to all men, eſpecially to the Houſhold of Faith; being kindly affectioned one to another in brotherly love without diſſimulation, affectionately and peaceably purſuing with due conſideration, moderation, reformation among, and reconciliation with, all of all perſwaſions, who are predeſtinated to be partakers of regeneration, adoption, juſtification, abſolution from, and remiſſion of all their iniquities, ſanctification which conſiſts in mortification of the old man, and vivification of the new, with ſalvation unto life everlaſting, through Jeſus Chriſt our all-ſufficient propitiation.

A Prayer for the Holy Spirit.

HOly Father, thou haſt made a moſt gracious and free promiſe to give thy Holy Spirit to them that ask him, and haſt alſo ſaid, If any Man have not the Spirit of Chriſt, he is none of his. O pour upon us the Spirit of Adoption, Grace, and Supplication, whereby we may cry, Abba, Father, for the Spirit to help our Infirmities, for we know not what we ſhould pray for as we ought, except the Spirit it ſelf maketh interceſſion for us, according to the Will of God, with groanings which cannot be uttered. Nor can we ever be changed into the Image of God from glory to glory, or mortify the Deeds of the Body, that we may live in the Spirit, nor know our ſelves to be the Sons and Heirs of God, but by the Spirit, for as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the Sons of God, and Co-heirs with Chriſt; and the Spirit it ſelf alſo beareth witneſs with our Spirits, that we are the Children of God. O do not therefore deny to us thy poor Children thy good Spirit (which thou haſt promiſed, and Chriſt hath purchaſed, for thy Sons ſake,) to reſt upon us, and to dwell in us, as a Spirit of Wiſdom and Underſtanding, of Counſel, Power, Faith, Love, and of a ſound mind, to make us of quick underſtanding in the fear of the Lord which is the beginning of all true Wiſdom: That praying in the Holy-Ghoſt, we may pray with the Spirit, and may pray with the Underſtanding alſo; we may ſing

the Spirit, and we may ſing with the Underſtanding alſo; and being [illegible] the Spirit, may ſpeak to our ſelves in Pſalms, Hymns, and Spiritual ſinging and making melody in our hearts unto the Lord, giving thanks always for all things unto God, and the Father, in the name of our Lord Jeſus, through whom we have an acceſs by one Spirit unto the Father, for every good and perfect Gift which cometh down from God, even the Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, the Father of Glory, the Father of Mercies, the Father of Lights, and the God of all Comfort, who only bleſſeth us with all ſpiritual Bleſſings in heavenly places in Chriſt, and according to his Mercy ſaveth us, by the waſhing of Regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghoſt, which we moſt humbly beſeech thee to ſhed on us abundantly, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord; that being juſtified by his Grace through Faith, we may have peace with God, and be made Heirs according to the Hope of Eternal Life, rejoycing in hope of the Glory of God, in that hope which maketh not aſhamed, becauſe the love of God is ſhed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghoſt which is given unto us; for we our ſelves, which have the First-fruits of the Spirit, are ſealed with that holy Spirit of Promiſe, which is the earneſt of our Inheritance. Even we our ſelves groan within our ſelves, waiting for the Adoption, to wit, the Redemption of the purchaſed Poſſeſſion, unto the praiſe of the Glory of his Grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the Beloved. Unto Him be Glory in the Church by Chriſt Jeſus, throughout all Ages, world without end. Amen.

Prayers to be uſed before the reading of the Holy Scriptures.

O Lord, open thou mine Eyes that I may behold wonderous things out of thy Law, and order thou my ſteps in thy word, and let not any iniquity have dominion over me for the ſake of Jeſus Chriſt.

HOly Father. Send forth according to thy gracious promiſe, the Spirit of truth and holineſs into my heart to guide me into all truth; and ſanctify me through thy truth, thy Word is Truth through the Merit of Jeſus Chriſt. Amen.
